

Faculty of Sports and Exercise Medicine Student Membership Criteria

Eligibility

- Must be an undergraduate student in a health-related discipline (medicine, physiotherapy, athletic training, sport sciences...)
- and*
- Must have a keen interest in Sports and Exercise Medicine

Application Process

- Fully completed application form (1 page)
- €20 fee (payable by credit card)
- Basic copy of Student ID card (current academic year at the time of the application)

Application to be returned to the FSEM office by post, fax or e-mail; please ensure you submit a complete application.

Benefits

- Get free attendance at all FSEM-run CPD events (SEMSEP modules, Webinars, Spring Study Day, Journal Clubs, etc.), apart from the Annual Scientific Conference (ASC)
- Opportunity to volunteer at FSEM ASC & get a free pass (limited places – first come, first served)
- Opportunity to network and meet FSEM Fellows/Members, postgraduate trainees and other undergraduates students with an interest in SEM at CPD events
- Access to research opportunities (ad’hoc basis)
- Any other benefits as advertised / available by the FSEM office on an ad’hoc basis during the year (such as entry in raffles, free merchandise etc.)

IMPORTANT – please note

- Student Membership needs to be renewed on an annual basis with the FSEM office, should you wish to continue to avail of the benefits above
- Student Membership Year runs from 1st May to 30th April every year

Any queries, please ring Annemarie in the FSEM office on 01- 402 2382 or e-mail sportsfac@rcsi.ie